

Diane Klisch, CIC

320-253-1122

e-mail: dianek@apolloinsurance.com

As a commercial bond specialist, Diane is responsible for all commercial bond issuance and service. She is available to answer any questions customers may have regarding their bond accounts.

Diane also handles many of Apollo's day-to-day office, personnel operations and the establishment of key office policies. She administers accounts payable and receivables, payroll and financial matters, and computer operations.

A veteran member of Apollo's team, Diane has been with Apollo since 1982. She is a licensed agent and holds a CIC designation (Certified Insurance Counselor). The CIC is a mark of distinction that represents a commitment to continuous enhancement of one's knowledge and service. CIC is nationally recognized as a symbol of professional excellence and leadership in the insurance industry.

Secure Your Future.

