As an agent, Mary deals with the establishment and servicing of personal policies. She works directly with customers in the beginning stages of the insurance interaction. She helps them select the most appropriate coverages, then continues to be of benefit after the policies are issued in the area of account changes and renewals. She is available to answer any questions customers may have regarding farm, personal home and auto, and individual life and health policies.

Mary has been with Apollo Insurance Agency since 1987, having gained three years' previous experience with another local insurance agency.

She is a licensed agent and is designated CISR (Certified Insurance Service Representative). The CISR is a mark of distinction that represents a commitment to continuous enhancement of one's knowledge and service. CISR is a current, practical way to obtain insurance education that is readily applied on a daily basis.
