

Steve Rotenberger, CIC
320-253-1122

e-mail: stever@apolloinsurance.com

As resident claims administrator, Steve processes claims of all types, working directly with both customers and insurance providers to reach a point of agreement regarding claim payments and insurance settlements. In addition, Steve assists in implementing loss control and safety programs for commercial accounts.

At Apollo Insurance Agency, we understand the profound importance of this segment of our industry, and we are proud to offer customers this type of individual claim service.

Prior to joining the staff in 1994 Steve served 13 years with two other major insurance companies, all in the area of claims administration. He is a licensed agent and attained a CIC (Certified Insurance Counselor) designation in 2000. The CIC is a mark of distinction that represents a commitment to continuous enhancement of one's knowledge and service. CIC is nationally recognized as a symbol of professional excellence and leadership in the insurance industry.

Secure Your Future.

